

The Hiro chair and lounge are made up of large cushions covered in linen or hemp supported by a sassafras wood frame with adjustable back with to two heights, for reading or relaxation.

By Paola Lenti

1.

1. The Objet Nomade collection is enriched by the new lanterns with blown glass internal light and interwoven leather strapwork in delicate shades. For outdoor and indoor use, available in two sizes. By Louis Vuitton

2. The Husk chair with high back that also acts as a windbreak is part of the bright, vigorous M'Afrique collection, made in Dakar, Senegal. By Moroso

2.

3.

3. Ziggy is a series of poufs and low tables with an original barrel or hourglass shape, made with iron rods and woven paste-dyed polyester cables. These small elements can lend distinctive character to outdoor areas. By Saba

4. The appeal of the chair and the entire Piper line lies in the use of a structural element, varnished aluminium tubing, and its combination with materials like teak and interwoven straps that enhance the design. By Roda

4.

The set on the megayacht Sherpa XL by Arcadia Yacht is an exceptional outdoor space that showcases the Cloud sofa, armchair and pouf in solid Iroko and Bongo low tables with matt lacquer finish. By Meridiani

