

1 2
4 3

Francesco Rota
for Paola Lenti

Jeannette Altherr, Delphine Désile, and Dennis Park of Altherr Désile Park for Arper

Fiona Barratt-Campbell
of FBC London

Ludovica+Roberto Palomba
for Expormim

product Hiro standout The Milanese designer nailed it: The lounge's simple sassafras-wood frame supports large seat and backrest cushions upholstered in linen or hemp, the position adjustable for reading or lollygagging. paolalenti.it

product Kata standout An FSC-certified hardwood frame supports cushion covers in 3D-knit fabric made from postconsumer-recycled plastic, rendering the Barcelona studio's lightweight lounge easy on the environment. arper.com

product Column
standout The British interior designer's marble- or glass-top aluminum side table inspired by Roman and Greek architecture sports rivet detailing that imbues a graphic, industrial, and slightly Pop Art feel. fbc-london.com

product Liz standout Referencing the curvaceous body of actress Elizabeth Taylor, the Milanese duo's ample 80-inch-wide sofa sports a metal-tube structure clad in stretchy elastic fabric plus generously padded cushions. expormim.com