

Decorated with zigzag stitches and swirls of embroidery, the Bruco seat from PAOLA LENTI's whimsical Metamorfosi collection, designed by Fernando and Humberto Campana, mimics the unique form of a caterpillar waiting to transform into a butterfly; paolalenti.it. OPPOSITE: JOSH SPERLING builds his minimalist-inspired artworks, such as Daydream D (2022), by bringing together multiple uniquely shaped canvases into one piece. The playful compositions, which are characterized by their bold use of color, bridge the space between painting and sculpture; perrotin.com.
